Celebrate the season with Viking

Spring and summer in Europe are lovely times to sail, but travel in the fall, and you'll see the rich, jeweled colors of forests and vineyards. And with less people, you can enjoy more room to discover Europe's many attractions, and more opportunity to encounter the locals.

Join us on a Thanksgiving journey

In 2012, Viking is introducing its Fall Celebrations cruise series. We invite you to join us in November when you can treat yourself, leave the cooking to us and come celebrate Thanksgiving with the Viking family. With a nod to a home-cooked meal, a traditional Thanksgiving feast—roasted turkey with all the trimmings—will be served on each November departure.

“In the heart of Europe you will find a delightful surprise—colorful Christmas markets all waiting to be explored... I first discovered Europe’s Christmas with my mother; we were looking for something different than the traditional winter break and have been coming back ever since.” — KARINE HAGEN

Experience the spirit and romance of the holidays with visits to a number of Europe’s traditional Christmas markets; visit us online at vrc.com/holidays.

CELEBRATE WITH VIKING ONLINE

Join Karine on an insider’s video tour through Europe’s Christmas markets, as she shares age-old gingerbread traditions, teaches you to make handcrafted wreaths and introduces you to the warm treat of glühwein. She invites you to come explore Europe’s winter wonderland and see how no one can share Europe’s Christmas markets with you like Viking can.

GINGERBREAD HOUSES

Watch as Karine and chef Joanna build a traditional gingerbread house from scratch. From dough to baking, building and decorating, you will share in the fun as a fully decorated house comes to life.

GIFTS FROM THE DANUBE

Karine offers personal insight into some of the Danube region’s most coveted gifts and tasty treats—from gourmet chocolates and beeswax candles to Vienna’s famous Sachertorte from Hotel Sacher.

GENERATIONS OF BAKING

Meet the family of Passau’s famous Café Simon, a bakery owned by the same family for the past five generations. Share in the secret family recipe of classic gingerbread, made only during the holidays.

ADVENT WREATHS

Making traditional advent wreaths are fun and easy with step-by-step instructions. Watch as a local wreathmaker uses three key components—a straw ring, steel wire and pine needles—to create a seasonal masterpiece.

WARM AND SPICY

Karine offers a wonderful recipe for glühwein, a warm wintertime libation. The aroma of the hot, mulled wine—with cinnamon, cloves and other spices—fills the air and warms you from the inside out.

BAKING LINZER COOKIES

Chef Gabor shares his recipe for traditional Linzer cookies, filled sandwich cookies reminiscent of the famous Linzertorte. Watch as he transforms a simple dough to a sweet and elegant snack.

✦ Enjoy al fresco dining on the Aquavit Terrace

YOUR HOME AWAY FROM HOME

An innovative and creative departure from traditional ship layout and design, the Viking Longships offer you a choice in stateroom category and configuration unlike any other. From spacious Veranda Staterooms and French Balcony staterooms with a sliding glass door, to the two-room Veranda Suites, each offers casual comfort and excellent river views. Or, you may choose one of two stunning Explorer Suites—the largest on Europe’s rivers—with a wraparound veranda providing 270° views and a sumptuous sense of luxury.

Corridor configuration registered designs patent pending, numbers 1832106-0001 to 1832106-0011. Ship’s bow registered design patent pending number 1205004.3.

RELAX ON THE AQUAVIT TERRACE

The Aquavit Terrace is the perfect place to make new friends and new memories. Revolutionary in concept and design, it is a glorious outdoor seating area at the bow of the ship where you can enjoy a casual meal al fresco, have a drink, or read a book—all while basking in the fresh air and enjoying breathtaking views.

GOING GREEN

Offering a remarkably quiet ride, the Viking Longships energy-efficient hybrid engines propel the ships along Europe’s storied waterways. Taking the next step in our environmental responsibility, Viking has added two additional “green” features: solar panels and an organic herb garden atop the sun deck.

As you sail along a peaceful stretch of the Danube, you approach a gold and ivory imperial fortress, resplendent with elegant details. See its interior, featuring soaring frescoes on walls and ceilings, and a glorious spiral staircase, on your tour.

Danube's Oldest City

Austria's Wachau Valley

The Wachau Valley is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, nestled between the quaint Austrian cities of Melk and Krems along the Danube River. Many picturesque towns and vineyards are located along this 24-mile stretch, and the area is perfect for a leisurely sailing.

Classical Music Capital

Known as the "City of Waltzes," Austria's capital of Vienna is widely considered to be the center of classical music. Here Strauss, Beethoven and Mozart composed many of their best-known works. Visitors can tour the homes of these famous composers and those of Haydn, Schubert, Brahms and more—now museums.

THE NUREMBERG CHRISTMAS ANGEL

Every year, Germany's most famous Christmas market opens its stalls to nearly two million visitors from around the world. At 5:30 p.m. on the Friday before the first Advent Sunday, the beautiful Christmas Angel recites a prologue from the gallery of the Church of Our Lady.

With her white and golden dress, long blonde hair and golden crown, Nuremberg's Christmas Angel is kept busy in the days and weeks following the opening of the market. She visits seniors at home, kindergartens, institutions and hospitals, bringing joy to many people.

Nuremberg's Christmas Angel has become famous in places as far away as the United States—Chicago's Christkindlmarket is fashioned after the market in Nuremberg, and as by tradition is opened each year by the previous Nuremberg Christmas Angel.

Medieval Toll Booths

The castles along the Rhine Valley were originally constructed as fortified residences to protect the land from marauders—but castle owners also utilized their strategically advantageous positions to impose tolls on passing merchants. This may explain why you will see so many castles while cruising the 35-mile stretch of the Rhine between Mainz and Bonn.

Ancient Heidelberg

Heidelberg is home to Germany's oldest university, founded in 1386. It also features one of the Rhine's most distinctive landmarks—the red sandstone ruins of Heidelberg Castle. Situated high above the town, the castle has sweeping views of the Neckar River Valley and Heidelberg's red-roofed charm.

Alsatian Cuisine

This region produces a savory cuisine that perfectly merges hearty German fare with French elegance. A typical dish is choucroute, featuring fermented white cabbage layered with spicy smoked pork—best served with potatoes and an Alsatian pinot blanc. Other meat specialties include Baeckeoffe, a traditional stew of marinated beef or lamb; charcuterie, sausages and other cured meats; goose liver pâté and Muenster cheese.

Cologne's Cathedral

For a short time, the Cologne Cathedral was the world's tallest building with its magnificent spires rising above the city. The cathedral's construction took over 600 years to complete. Now a UNESCO World Heritage Site, it is a stunning example of Gothic architecture. Admire the lovely stained glass windows as you walk through its vaulted interior.

ENJOY THE TASTE OF GLÜHWEIN

Served hot, sweet and spiced, glühwein warms you up nicely at the end of the day. Warm and fragrant, it is a delicious mulled wine that's so easy to make, you can prepare it at home. Not only does glühwein taste good, it also fills your home with a wonderfully festive aroma.

Ingredients:

1 liter bottle robust red wine	1 cardamom pod
1 tsp ground cinnamon or	Juice of 1 orange and
1 cinnamon stick	1 lemon
2-3 cups sugar (to taste)	1 tsp cloves

METHOD:

Add all ingredients to a saucepan. Heat until nearly boiling; then strain into a pre-warmed bowl or jug. Serve warm with cookies or festive desserts.

Bratislava Bronzes

If you look carefully, you will notice that not everyone in Bratislava is made of flesh and blood. Some of the Slovakian capital's most beloved citizens are cast in bronze. The most famous is Cumil, the Watcher, peering out from a manhole in the street. There are others here and there; keep your eyes peeled!

Treasures in Budapest

A quick stroll from the dock in Budapest takes you to one of the city's best marketplaces—the Great Market Hall, established in 1897. A variety of shopping stalls await you—supermarket and fishmongers in the basement, greengrocers and spice vendors on street level, and fine linens, knickknacks and delicious Hungarian treats like sausages and sweet pancakes on the floor above. A must-see.

The Town of Music

The fourth-largest city in Austria, Salzburg is known for its great beauty, and for being the setting for the musical and film, The Sound of Music. It is the birthplace of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, whose childhood home can still be seen. The baroque Old Town area is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Spend a delightful day there on this itinerary.

Sample Vienna's Most Wanted

Luckily, two delicious treats on your Vienna to-do list—the traditional Sachertorte and the city's famous coffee—can be savored together. The original Sachertorte recipe has been a closely guarded Hotel Sacher secret since 1832, but most coffeehouses sell their own versions. Enjoy a cup of Viennese coffee and a sweet treat.

THE LEGEND OF THE NUTCRACKER

In German's Christmas markets, you'll see nutcrackers of all shapes, colors and sizes. According to German folklore, nutcrackers were given as keepsakes to protect your home and bring good luck to your family. A fierce protector, the nutcracker bares its teeth to the evil spirits and guards your family from danger. Nutcrackers were a part of traditional dining customs—the more amusing and unusual the nutcracker, the better, as it provided a whimsical conversation piece for guests who lingered over the dessert course, which included pecans and hazelnuts.

Writers, composers and artists immortalized the nutcracker, including Amadeus Hoffman who, in 1816, wrote his novel, The Nutcracker and the Mouse King. Hoffman's story was the inspiration for Tchaikovsky's famous Nutcracker Suite, which debuted as a ballet in St. Petersburg in 1892, and is, to this day, a favorite holiday tradition around the world.

✦ Regensburg

A Scenic Main River

Everyone knows about the beauty of the Rhine and the Danube's lovely Wachau Valley, but the Main River—an important Rhine tributary—is a little-known scenic treasure. Picture-perfect vineyards and unspoiled hamlets line the river as you sail along.

Charlemagne's Dream

Some 1,200 years ago, Emperor Charlemagne contemplated connecting the Rhine, Main and Danube to facilitate river travel through Europe. Lack of technical resources prevented this idea from being realized—until the Main-Danube Canal was completed in 1992. Employing ingenious river locks, vessels can now travel 2,200 miles through 10 countries, from the North Sea to the Black Sea.

Bavarian Bamberg

Founded in 902, Bamberg's Old Town area is a beautifully preserved UNESCO World Heritage Site. Walk past neat rows of patrician houses to the remarkable Old City Hall, sited in the middle of the Regnitz River and accessed by bridges on both sides. During free time, sample the town's famous smoky beer, Rauchbier.
