Empires of the Mediterranean Ports of Call

Dubrovnik

- The whole city is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
- Both old and contemporary history to discover.
- Often described as the ‘Pearl of the Adriatic.’

Istanbul

- A melting pot of European and Asian culture rich with history and treasures from the Ottoman Empire.
- Great scenic cruising through the Dardanelles, Sea of Marmara and past the Golden Horn.
- Home to the Grand Bazaar, perhaps the world’s oldest and most famous market.
- Unusual Viking history (go and see the graffiti left in the Hagia Sophia toward the end of the Viking Age).

Kotor

- An off-the-beaten-path port mostly visited by the mega-rich in their private yachts.
- A simply stunning approach through a narrow channel to a port only accessible to smaller ships.
- Central berth, just 400 feet from the town and surrounded by high mountains.
- Great medieval history and the charm of a small and undiscovered gem.

Kuşadası (Ephesus)

- The closest port to the magnificent ancient site of Ephesus.
- The region is rich in sites from antiquity.
- Great beaches and clear warm waters to swim in.
- Central berth, just 500 feet from the town.

Piraeus (Athens)

- No Eastern Mediterranean cruise is complete without this ancient city, whose history spans 3,400 years.
- Some of the world’s best Greek and Roman ruins and artifacts throughout the city and surrounding areas.
- Home to the iconic Acropolis upon which sits the mighty Parthenon.

Empires of the Mediterranean

Pula

- An off-the-beaten-path port only accessible to smaller ships at anchor.
- Guests disembark right in the center of town.
- Great Roman history with some very well-preserved buildings on display.

Santorini (Thíra)

- A beautiful island which is actually the crater of a massive (and still active) volcano.
- Fantastic views of the towering 1,000-foot-high cliffs as the ship sails in and out of the flooded crater.
- The destruction of island by the eruption is said to be the basis for the legend of Atlantis.

Venice

- Surely on everyone's 'bucket list' due to the beauty and splendor of this water-bound city.
- Great scenic cruising through the Venetian Lagoon, right past St. Mark's Square.
- Central berth, just 20 minutes' walk from the Doges Palace. Only available to small ships.
- Full of art, architecture and history, a perfect port to start or end your cruise.

Extend Your Journey Before or After Your Cruise

Make the very most of your time away from home by extending your vacation experience with one of our city stays or tours. Spend a little more time in these great destinations. Our expert local guides and hosts will help you get the very best from your stay.

Istanbul

2-night City Stay

Discover Istanbul at your own pace. Experience fabulous shopping in the world's largest covered market, the Grand Bazaar, and visit iconic palaces and mosques. Enjoy two nights, including breakfasts, at a modern hotel in the Taksim Square district, boasting an on-site hammam. Breakfast and transfers included.

2- or 3-night Istanbul, Gallipoli & Troy Tour

Explore the World War I battleground of Gallipoli—with an expert guided tour—during 2015, the year of the Gallipoli Campaigns' 100th anniversary. Visit Troy to see the city walls that were besieged in the Trojan War. Return to Istanbul for a panoramic tour of its major monuments. Includes up to three hotel nights, plus all meals and transfers.

*Enjoy two nights as a pre-cruise tour or three nights as a post-cruise tour.

Venice

2-night City Stay

Discover Venice, famous for its canals that traverse this floating city. Explore the city's sights on foot or by one of the local vaporetto water buses. Enjoy two nights including breakfasts at the Hilton Molino Stucky or equivalent, situated on the banks of the Giudecca Canal. Breakfast and transfers included.

3-night Rome, Florence, Bologna & Verona Tour

Admire Rome's monuments—the Colosseum, the Forum and Vatican City—on a scenic drive. In Florence, visit the stunning Duomo and Ponte Vecchio. Tour ancient Bologna and see the famous anatomical theatre, Archiginnasio. In Verona, enjoy a walking tour that includes a visit to the "Juliet balcony." Includes all meals, hotels and transfers.

Aug-Oct 2015 departures only.
